My Practice

I am a real estate attorney and family and divorce mediator. My clients live and work throughout the five Boroughs of New York City, Long Island and Westchester. They come to me because they are buying and selling real estate, landlords and tenants, and other clients who have legal needs concerning and affecting real estate including assisting couples who want a decent divorce.

I am passionate about what I do and I bring my energy and experience to every transaction and to each couple who works with me. I am very committed to my clients and it is that commitment which sets me apart from other attorneys you may know.
